"This year's selection of the Finalists has been very tough with so many impressive nominees. It really is true that being a Finalist is in itself being a winner!" said Deborah Biber, Chief Executive of the Pacific Basin Economic Council and Chair of the 2018 ACBA Judging Panel.

Paul Lai, Westpac's Regional Head and Head of Corporate & Institutional Banking Greater China said the calibre of entries continues to climb year on year.

"Given its size and incredible pace of transformation, it's fantastic to see these Australian businesses that have worked hard to get their China strategy right, reaping the rewards and propelling their business forward."

Congratulations to all of the 2018 ACBA Finalists.

Winners of the 2018 ACBAs will be announced at a Gala Dinner in Shanghai on Thursday 17th May. Tickets are available for sale – visit www.austcham-acba.com for more information.

2018 Host: AustCham Shanghai

Winners of the AustCham Westpac ACBAs are announced at a black-tie gala dinner in rotating cities across Greater China each year. 2018 will see AustCham Shanghai host the ACBAs. The Australian Chamber of Commerce Shanghai was founded in 1994 and has grown into a strong networking organisation representing over 400 members benefiting thousands of company employees with more than 100 events annually.

Westpac in China

Westpac has been the official key sponsor of the ACBAs since 2009. Westpac has operated in Asia for over 40 years and was the first Australian bank into China. In addition to its Asian regional headquarters in Singapore, Westpac has branches in Hong Kong, Beijing, Shanghai, Mumbai and a representative office in Jakarta. Westpac's goal in China is to both support Australian and New Zealand customers in the region, as well as provide a gateway for Chinese firms and individuals with interests in Australia and New Zealand.
